REQUIREMENTS AND PROGRAMME

The competition takes place in four categories:
Piano, Strings, Woodwind, Brass and Other Instruments (Classical Guitar, Recorder and Percussion)

- Five contrasting works, of at least three style periods, are required during the first three rounds.
- The first round must include a work from the Baroque period and the second round must include a work from the Classical period.
- A work by a South African composer is compulsory in either round one or round two.
- Works may not be repeated during these rounds.
- The maximum duration is ten minutes for the first and second rounds, and fifteen minutes for the third and final rounds.
- All repeat signs must be ignored, except in the case of Da Capo.
- Should there be no original works for instruments other than the piano from these style periods, written requests can be submitted to the Chairperson of SASMT Tygerberg, tygerbergbranch@gmail.co.za. Include a copy of the work.
- Piano concertos or parts thereof are not allowed. However, concertos or parts thereof will be allowed in the case of other instruments.
- The competition takes place over four rounds. All participants take part in the first two rounds.
- Candidates will only be allowed to participate on one instrument.
- The compilation of the programme is subject to approval.

THE FOUR ROUNDS

- First round: Two contrasting works (one Baroque).
 - Second round: Two new contrasting works (one Classical).
* A South African work is compulsory in either round one or round two.
 - Third round: Two contrasting works - one from a previous round and one own choice not yet performed.
 - Final round: A programme of three works chosen from previous rounds.

PARTICIPATING IN THE COMPETITION

- Candidates who performed in the final round in 2021 do not have to play an audition.
 - Previous winners may not participate in the same category.
 - Category winners are eligible for other prizes.
 - The adjudicators' decision is final. It is also at the discretion of the adjudicators to not award a prize.
